Suggest a page

If you are reading a page on this wiki and there are specific words that you wished we had an article defining, edit the page and surround the word(s) in double brackets like this

In a sentence [[this]] will be a link. You can also choose what the link text is with the pipe symbol like this [[article name|link text]]

Links that don't have an article yet will be shown in red. This makes it easy for others to just start this article.

Improve an article

Even if you can't be bothered with writing pristine and beautiful articles that everybody loves to read we still would love you to help to improve this wiki. You can correct errors that you encounter, correct imprecise articles that annoy you, or just improve the flow and make an article more legible. For most people on earth English is not their mother tongue. If you feel that spelling or grammar need some tweaking you are very welcome to help.

Write an article

If you have an idea for an article and you don't see a link for it you can simply type the name of the article into the search field and then click the edit button to the right of the search results to start writing it.

These are the articles that wait to be written:
